

Westwood Community Survey Results

The Westwood Master Plan community survey response period ended March 25, 2016. A summary of the results received is now posted.

This survey provides the project team with additional community input to help develop detailed goals and objectives for the Westwood Master Plan process.